Map of the Houston area showing the proposed Green Line and Purple Line transit routes. The map includes major highways like I-10, I-25, and I-67, and various colored zones (green, purple, orange, blue, yellow) representing different land use or transit planning areas. A scale bar and north arrow are in the bottom left corner.

- Action 1.3: Encourage balanced and fiscally responsible land use patterns.
- Action 1.6: Incentivize infill development and redevelopment to take advantage of existing infrastructure.
- Action 2.1: Sustain community livability for all ages and economic backgrounds.
- Action 2.33: Encourage vertical growth and development of key areas to take advantage of infrastructure capacity, maintain the core, and to discourage sprawl.
- Action 3.13: Cultivate an environment where a healthy mix of different housing products at a range of sizes, affordability, densities, amenities and price points can be provided across the community as well as within individual developments.
- Action 3.15: Incentivize home development that is affordable and close to schools, jobs and transportation.
- Action 3.20: Encourage residential developments to include pedestrian and bicycle friendly trails to nearby schools, preferably within a 2-mile radius of each school.
- Action 3.30: Encourage and incentivize workforce/affordable housing to attract new workforce entrants and young families.
