

With the amendment, these two street stubs would not require a temporary turnaround.
The stub does not exceed one buildable lot or 250 feet in length, and there are no buildable lots fronting on the stub

In these examples, a temporary turnaround is required. There are buildable lots with frontage on the stub street.

